REFLECTING ON RPI...

Prior to the final games of the 2004 and 2005 seasons, the seniors were asked to reflect on the following question: What has made your time at RPI special? Throughout these pages are some of their responses.

Why Not Change The World?
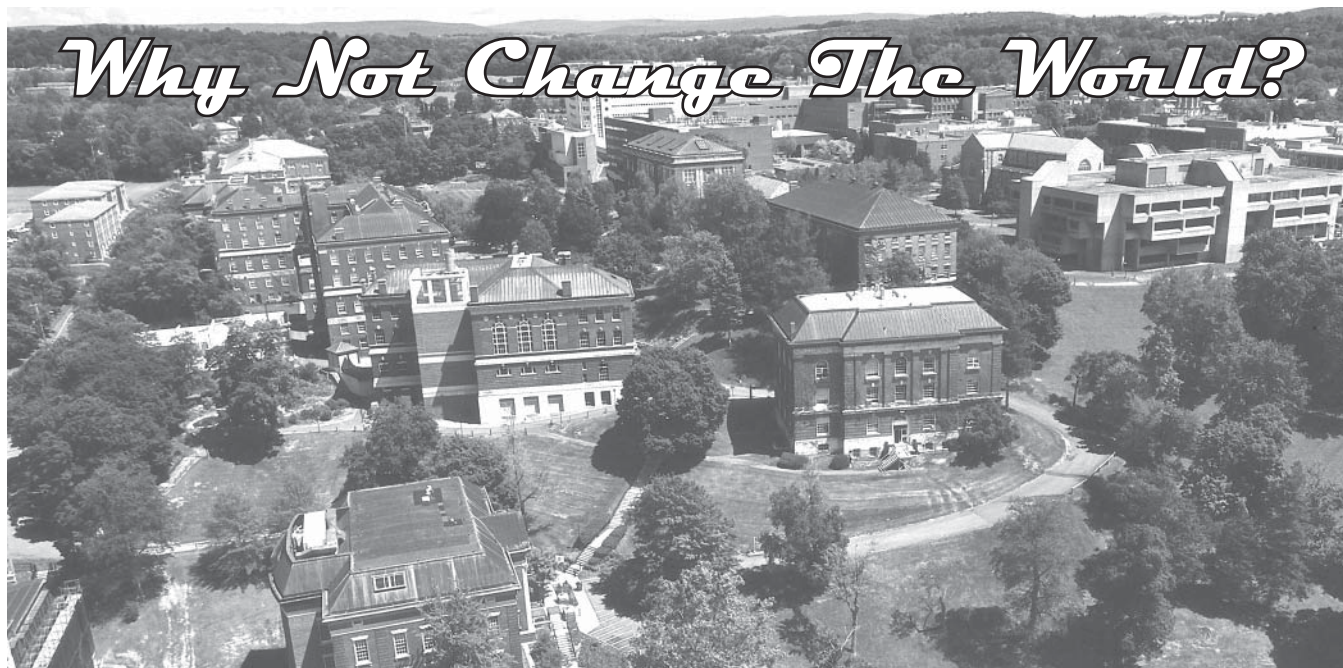

Today's Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute is combining its legacy of leadership in technology-based education with an expanding emphasis on the pursuit of discovery.

Dr. Shirley Ann Jackson
President

Dr. Shirley Ann Jackson is President of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. She is immediate past President of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (2004) and chairman of the AAAS Board of Directors, a member of the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), and the Council on Foreign Relations, a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Physical Society, the Smithsonian Institution, and serves on the New York Stock Exchange Board of Directors. She is the former Chairman of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC).

U.S.News & World Report has ranked Rensselaer 42nd among the nation's top universities, up from 43rd last year. The Institute also ranks 24th in the "Best Values" among national universities, up from 27th last year. Rensselaer's School of Engineering is ranked 19th in the nation.

ACADEMICS: AN EXPERIENCE IN INTERACTIVE LEARNING.

With 35 majors, more than 60 minors, and over 50 graduate programs, Rensselaer students are sure to find a program that suits their interests and career goals.

School of Architecture

Though architecture is the most public of arts, it is also in these times a context for the most far-reaching creativity. To sustain this energy, an education in architecture has to deal with all the physical and structural demands of building. Design is central to architectural education. It must equip the student to be creative in all the new media that supports computational design, and, best of all, it must give experience in the global context that American architects practice within.

The school has extensive international programs from Italy to India and China; a culture that encourages study and research between disciplines; a studio environment that supports the most ambitious application of information-based design and technology and places high value on creativity.

School of Engineering

If you are intellectually inquisitive about how things work and passionate about making a difference in whatever you do, then Rensselaer's School of Engineering is for you! We are looking for students who have not only excelled academically, but also demonstrated, through their out-of-classroom activities, a commitment to leadership and entrepreneurship. Lead new revolutions in medical imaging, robotics, and nanostructured materials. Create a faster computer. Build a high-tech composite bridge.

Our engineering students are learning by doing through faculty-guided discoveries – focusing their energy and ideas on solving real-world challenges. Work in state-of-the-art labs. Learn to brainstorm and contribute to team projects. Do a co-op at one of the hundreds of top companies who see out young talent from Rensselaer each year.

School of Humanities & Social Sciences

H&SS at Rensselaer is on the cutting edge, integrating liberal arts with information technology. On the technical side, you'll be exposed to interactive lab-oriented math, science, computing, and more. On the liberal arts side, you'll explore the specialty area of your choice – with a particular focus on real-world challenges and career opportunities.

Our students may want traditional careers – law, medicine, business, engineering, entertainment, communication – but do not necessarily want to follow the traditional paths. Electronic Media, Arts, and Communication (EMAC) students get wired with leading-edge multimedia equipment. Students design educational games that help teach math by using music rhythms in an interdisciplinary program called Product Design & Innovation. Minds & Machines students create a better interface between computers and their owners. Musicians, artists, philosophers, psychologists, and economists – get hooked up with the skills they need to be the movers and shakers of the new millennium.

Lally School of Management & Technology

The Lally School's curriculum integrates technology and management with science, humanities, and social sciences. The curriculum emphasizes hands-on projects with teamwork, offering real-world experience that prepares you for successful careers in a range of fields, from financial systems, management information systems, and technological entrepreneurship to marketing systems and consulting.

You will learn to address the unique managerial issues and organizational challenges associated with working in a global business setting. You are encouraged to expand your learning experience beyond the classroom and to enhance your international perspectives by participating in study abroad programs. You are uniquely prepared for the ever-changing dynamics that are an inevitable part of the 21st century world of management and technology.

School of Science

Dive into a living, breathing environmental lab at our Darrin Fresh Water Institute on Lake George. Optimize performance of the Internet. Build an animated 3-D model of a new disease-fighting drug. Design new, efficient algorithms for medical imaging and diagnosis. Test the severity of a virtual earthquake. Explore new opportunities created by terahertz speed and terascale density. The essence of science, as we see it, is learning by doing. At Rensselaer, you are going to do some incredible things. You'll also have tremendous flexibility. Our degree programs have many free electives – enabling you to tailor a curriculum to your interests and talents. Do you see yourself fast-tracking to your Ph.D.? This is the school for you.

Information Technology

Right now, there is a huge global need for IT professionals who know how to use computers to solve problems. Not just people who understand the technology side – but people who understand its applications and implications. Rensselaer is answering this need with a revolutionary, interdisciplinary IT degree, enabling you to master information age technologies and combine that knowledge with the concentration of your choice.

Still Undecided? Too Many Interests?

Not sure which Rensselaer program is for you? Not a problem. Explore your many options for up to three semesters as an undeclared student before deciding on a major. You'll take all your core requirements, without falling behind your fellow students, and get a chance to learn more about programs you're curious about.

For more information or for an application, please visit www.rpi.edu/admission

DISCOVERY: THE ABILITY TO BE A PART OF SOMETHING SPECIAL.

There are dedicated residence halls for first-year students. Freshman housing is guaranteed.

Want to live on campus after your first year? You can do that, too!

Make friends. Explore your interests. Blow off steam. Get involved. Rensselaer has more than 160 clubs, sports, and organizations from which to choose. We have everything you'll find at most universities, and quite a few clubs you may not see elsewhere. From the RPI TV station to the Science Fiction Association, from the Ski Club to the Astrophysical Society, we literally have something for everyone. Performing arts. Multicultural organizations. Publications. Radio station. Student government. Want to try chess, squash, drama, fencing? Whatever you're into, get into it at Rensselaer.

OPPORTUNITY: THE CHANCE TO LIVE THE REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE.

The opportunities to make your mark on the world before you graduate are endless at Rensselaer. From co-op to graduate school and studying abroad, the possibilities are limitless.

For more than 60 years, the Career Development Center (CDC) has offered students the opportunity to participate in our innovative Cooperative Education Program (co-op), which takes you out of the classroom for an entire semester (plus a summer) and into a full-time position at any number of top companies and organizations.

Want to see the world? Studying abroad expands a student's cultural horizons, offering a new and extended perspective on a technological education. Rensselaer encourages students to consider integrating an experience away from campus during their junior or senior year; opportunities are available at more than 70 universities worldwide, including programs in Ireland, Australia, and Japan.

TROY AND THE CAPITAL REGION ... SO CLOSE TO SO MUCH

The really cool thing about going to college in Troy (aside from Rensselaer itself) is that you are in the heart of New York's Capital Region; you are close to so much. The history, eateries, culture, shops, and festivals of Troy and Albany are minutes away. Drive a few more minutes and you're in Saratoga Springs for horse racing in the summer and a happening nightlife year-round. A bit farther and you're swimming, hiking, or sightseeing at gorgeous Lake George. Famous havens like Cooperstown and Woodstock are a quick drive away. Take Manhattan or explore downtown Boston – equidistant from Troy, less than three hours away. Get just a little more ambitious and check out Niagara Falls near Buffalo, or head on up to Montreal, Canada. Want to go ever further still? The Albany International Airport is close and tremendously convenient.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS KEN RALPH

Ken Ralph was named director of athletics at Rensselaer on May 30, 2002.

At RPI, Ralph oversees the Institute's 23 NCAA intercollegiate varsity teams – 11 of which are women's – and numerous junior varsity squads, involving more than 600 student-athletes. Two sports – men's and women's ice hockey – compete at the Division I level while the other three are Division III programs.

In his four years since joining the Institute, Ralph has worked tirelessly for the betterment of the student-athletes and the university.

This past season, Rensselaer saw two teams and seven individuals compete in NCAA Championships while two other teams captured ECAC Championships. Eleven student-athletes earned 15 National All-American citations, including individuals from football, track & field, diving, baseball, softball, and lacrosse. RPI also boasted seven National Academic All-Americans – which ranked second in all of Division III – and the field hockey team posted the highest team grade point average in the nation for the second straight season.

The 2004-05 season saw Rensselaer produce 11 National All-Americans and seven Academic All-Americans, which was one shy of its NCAA Division III-best eight selected in 2003-04. In fact, Rensselaer ranked second in the entire nation in Academic All-Americans across all NCAA divisions, trailing only the University of Nebraska and tying Rice University.

In 2003-04, Rensselaer was represented at eight NCAA Championships, including a tournament semi-final appearance by the football team – the first in school history – a regional tournament berth by the baseball team. Individually, RPI sent 14 representatives to national competitions, including one who became the school's first-ever national champion in swimming, as well as four others who finished in the top four in their respective events. Overall, Rensselaer had 18 student-athletes combine for 29 National All-American honors.

Ralph's numerous other accomplishments since being hired include playing an integral role in the passing of NCAA Amendment 65-1, which maintained athletic scholarships for a select number of Division III Institutions, including RPI and its Division I men's hockey team, and the elevation of the women's ice hockey program from Division III to Division I. He also initiated the Annual Black Friday men's hockey game, started the Hockey Ring of Honor and organized the 50th Anniversary Reunion and Celebration Weekend to commemorate the school's 1954 National Championship men's hockey team as well as the 20th Anniversary Celebration of the 1985 men's hockey national championship team. Ralph also oversaw the resurfacing of the Ned Harkness Track & Field and has served on numerous committees with the Liberty League as well as the ECAC Hockey League.

Prior to joining Rensselaer, Ralph was senior assistant athletic director at Connecticut College in New London, Conn., where he oversaw a 26-team Division III department and directed The Lott Natatorium. He headed athletic program development, was the NCAA compliance officer and supervised the coaching staff and sports information office. He also served as a member of the Athletic Director's Advisory Committee and the Athletic Management Committee.

In addition, Ralph served as head swim coach of both the men's and women's programs, compiling a 50-33 record (101-72-1 in his coaching career). During his tenure, which began in 1998, every one of his teams earned National All-Academic status from the College Swim Coaches Association of America, maintaining a team average grade point average of 3.41. Ralph, who also coached water polo, earned the 2000 Andrew Chait Award for outstanding service to Connecticut College and its athletic department.

Ralph began his head coaching career in 1992 at Georgetown University, where his men's and women's swim teams broke 17 school records in two years. He became head coach at Kutztown University in 1994 and produced nine All-Americans in 1996. Both the men's and women's teams finished among the nation's top 12 and broke a total of 32 records over two seasons. Ralph was chosen as the 1996 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. Later that year, he moved to the Air Force Academy, where both swim teams earned National All-Academic status with a team GPA of at least 3.2. While at Air Force, Ralph earned the Moyer-Nike Award for Excellence in Coaching Women in 1996 and the Air Force Award for Organizational Excellence in 1997.

A native of Salem, N.H., Ralph is a graduate of the University of Alaska-Anchorage with a degree in political science. He was a five-time NCAA Division II All-American in swimming (in 1989 in the 100- and 200-yard butterfly and in 1990 in the 100-yard butterfly and 100- and 200-yard backstroke) and went on to become a U.S. Senior National Qualifier in 1989 and 1990. He is a member of the Alaska-Anchorage Athletic Hall of Fame.

Ralph's community service activities have leveraged his athletic experiences. He participated in Camp Rotary, an academic and recreational camp for disadvantaged students in New London, and he was a mentor in the Connecticut College Office of Volunteers for Community Service. He has also been a volunteer for many associations and has hosted the "Match" program with Big Brother/Big Sisters.

Ralph, who was Rensselaer's 2003-04 Person of the Year by The Polytechnic, and his wife, Mary, reside in Ballston Lake.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS KAREN HANSEN

Karen Hansen is in her second year as associate athletic director. Among her duties in this role are handling the business and finance operations for the athletic department.

Hansen came to Rensselaer from Bloomsburg University in Bloomsburg, Pa., where she was the director of athletic operations. Her duties included game scheduling for all 18 varsity sports, liaison between all athletic support staff members, game setup for all home athletic contests and post-season tournaments, and overseeing a student work-study staff of 25 that served as event workers and weight room monitors. She was also responsible for maintaining financial databases for summer camps, work-study budgets, sport-specific attendance records, transportation, and other programs on campus.

In 1999, Hansen worked for The Pocono Record in Stroudsburg, Pa., where she compiled local sports agate into articles and wrote features on area athletes, coaches and sports administrators. She also worked that year with the Lehigh Valley Steam professional soccer team in Easton, Pa., serving as the event management, promotions and marketing Intern. Her responsibilities included writing field usage proposals, stadium setup for game-day operations, obtaining corporate sponsorships, and setup of community clinics.

Hansen is a 2000 graduate of East Stroudsburg University in Pennsylvania with a master's degree in sports management and administration. She received her bachelor's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1997.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"My time here has been special because of the people I have met, and the things I have learned. I think RPI has made me a better and more complete person, and I am thankful to everyone who was involved in that process. I will fondly look back on my time here, and the people I have been a classmate, student, colleague, and teammate." — David Kenoyer '06

THE 2006 SEASON OUTLOOK

With 18 starters returning – including all 11 on offense – from a squad that posted an 8-2 record and captured the ECAC Northwest Bowl, the 2006 Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute football team has reason to be optimistic for a successful season. The Engineers, who also return the core of their coaching staff, are gunning for their fifth post-season appearance in the last six years and their sixth in the last eight years.

The 2005 campaign featured many highlights for RPI, which came within two touchdowns of its third undefeated regular season since 1999. Offensively, the team averaged 33.5 points and 429.1 yards per game behind the emergence of quarterback Jimmy Robertson (Yonkers, NY/Iona Prep) and standout performances from All-Americans Jay Bernardo (East Greenbush, NY/LaSalle Institute), a running back, and Jon Branche (Schenectady, NY/Colonie), a tight end, as well as the offensive line. Defensively, the Engineers held the opposition to under 20 points (18.9) and just over 300 yards (305.9) per game.

THE OFFENSE

Once again this year 18th-year head coach Joe King hopes to achieve a solid balance on offense. Rensselaer is coming off a season in which it ran the ball 405 times for a net 1,816 yards while throwing it 355 times for 2,475 yards. Nineteen of the team's touchdowns came on the ground while 26 were through the air.

A 6-1, 190-pound sophomore, Robertson saw action in nine of ten games at QUARTERBACK last season, including nine as a starter. The Liberty League Rookie of the Year, he completed 193-of-325 passes for 2,313 yards, with a league-best 26 touchdowns and only eight interceptions. He led the league in pass efficiency (140.6) while also running for 133 yards to rank first in the Liberty League in total offense (271.8 yards per game).

Senior Frank Catellier (Voorheesville, NY/Voorheesville) and junior Josh Chiappone (Troy, NY/Troy) are also capable of solid play under center. Catellier has gotten into 18 games during his career, including eight as a starter, while Chiappone played in four contests last season.

The quarterbacks have each of their top six RECEIVERS back, among them a pair of All-Liberty League performers, and all of whom caught at least 11 passes. Junior Brendan McGowan (Mesa, AZ/Mountain View) led the team with 66 receptions for 799 yards and nine touchdowns, followed closely by the 6-4, 245-pound Branche, a captain who had 65 catches for 919 yards. A senior who was a multiple National All-American for the second straight year, as well as an ESPN the Magazine National Academic All-American, Branche averaged 14.1 yards per catch, 91.9 yards per game and 14 touchdowns – all team highs.

Bernardo was third on the team with 24 receptions for 201 yards, followed by junior Drew Utschig (Harrison, NY/Iona Prep), who caught 19 passes for 173 yards. Sophomore Eren Savasli (Brooklyn, NY/Brooklyn Tech) had 18 catches, including two touchdowns, for 209 yards while junior Chris Graef (Bethel, CT/Bethel) made 11 receptions for 144 yards in six contests. Senior Graham Boyd (Wappingers Falls, NY/John Jay), who is also an outstanding special teams player, continues to add depth to the position.

While Bernardo, a second-year captain, showed he has the hands to catch the ball, his primary role will once again be as a runner out of the BACKFIELD. The 5-7, 190-pound senior rushed 256 times for 1,422 yards and 19 touchdowns last season. His 142.2 yards per game average ranked eighth in the nation, while his 11.4 points per game was sixth. The Most Outstanding Player of the ECAC Northwest Bowl and a National All-American, Bernardo was also among the top 20 nationally in all purpose yards per game with 162.3 (17th). Among his top efforts was an NCAA record 99-yard run in the first game of last season.

Also expected to see playing time in the backfield are sophomores Mike Giacoia (Marlboro, NY/Marlboro), a tailback, and Justin Heafy (Cheshire, CT/Cheshire), a fullback. Giacoia rushed for 90 yards on 21 attempts, including a 25-yard long, while Heafy served as a blocking back. Junior Nick Casale (Waterford, NY/LaSalle Institute), who's primary role is as a defensive lineman, also played some fullback.

Opening holes for the running backs and providing protection for the quarterbacks is an OFFENSIVE LINE that returns all five starters, including four seniors. All five have started for at least one season and two are coming off All-Liberty League performances. At tackle is fourth-year starter Jake Russell (Washington, NJ/Warren Hills), an All-League and All-ECAC selection a year ago, on the left and classmate Shawn Herrmann (Phoenix, NY/C.W. Baker) on the right. Herrmann, a National Academic All-American as a junior, is a captain and third-year starter. The guards are senior Matt Merrow (Keene, NH/Keene) on the left and Terrence Bynum (Brooklyn, NY/Lincoln), an All-League and All-Region choice as a junior, on the right. Junior Danny Caruso (Valley Stream, NY/Holy Trinity) returns as the center. A starter in the first five games, he missed the final half of last season due to injury.

Also playing key roles on the offensive line will be juniors Dave Dillen (Grand Island, NY/Grand Island), Dave Lutian (Milford, CT/Jonathan Law) and Grant Sanville (Westfield, VT/North Country). All three are versatile players who saw action on the varsity and the junior varsity as sophomores.

THE DEFENSE

On the opposite side of the ball, the Engineers feature a solid group of down linemen, a young set of linebackers and a secondary that returns three of four starters.

Among those playing IN THE TRENCHES are five players who played significantly last year, including two starters. Fourth-year varsity performer Bob Perreault (Troy, NY/Lansingburgh) registered 36 tackles from his right end position, including 17 solo stops and seven for lost yards (51). He also had a team-high six sacks for 43 yards lost while also forcing a fumble. Junior tackle Doug Ingraham (Grand Island, NY/Grand Island) is the other returning starter. He finished with 29 tackles, including 18 unassisted, 6.5 for lost yards (30) and four sacks (25 yards lost) in his first year on the defensive line.

Bob Perreault

Casale, an end who had 16 tackles (4 solos) with three sacks (20 yards lost), and sophomore tackle Khaly Merot (White Plains, NY/White Plains), who recorded nine tackles (3 solos) with two sacks (9 yards lost), played extensively on the second unit along with junior Vince Scicchitano (Centerport, NY/Harborfields). A third-year varsity performer at nose guard, Scicchitano made 13 tackles as a sophomore.

Among those competing for playing time are sophomores James McLaughlin (Foxboro, MA/Foxboro) and Ben Williams (Clifton Park, NY/Shenendehowa) and senior Mike Warner (Lafayette Hill, PA/Plymouth Whitemarsh).

The most noteworthy changes for Rensselaer are at LINEBACKER, where one of the three starters return. Senior captain Armin Warner (Schenectady, NY/Schenectady) is that lone returnee, bringing with him 57 tackles, including 34 unassisted, 4.5 for lost yards (21), three sacks (18 yards lost) and two pass breakups. Junior Tom Rayhill (Grand Island, NY/Grand Island), who is also a standout special teams performer, is the top returning tackler, having registered 58 stops. He had 30 solos, 7.5 for lost yards (25), three sacks (18 yards lost), an interception, three pass breakups, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Nick Foglia (Watervliet, NY/CBA), a senior, has an opportunity to move into a starting role.

Junior Dan Belber (Niskayuna, NY/Niskayuna), who played his first two seasons as a defensive lineman, senior Kevin Jordan (Bluffton, SC/Niskayuna, NY), a converted defensive back, and fellow senior Dave Pompei (Burnt Hills, NY/Burnt Hills-Ballston Lake) will compete for time while also providing depth.

In RPI's SECONDARY both starting cornerbacks return along with the free safety. On one corner is senior Adam LoGiudice (Massapequa, NY/Massapequa) while junior John Tesiero (Amsterdam, NY/Amsterdam), a captain, patrols the other side. LoGiudice was All-Liberty League after making 36 tackles (26 solos) with six pass breakups and a team-high four interceptions in 2005 while Tesiero made 42 tackles, including 28 unassisted. He also had five pass breakups and an interception with a 20-yard return. Sophomore Mark Sangiorgi (Wyckoff, NJ/Ramapo) is the third starter back. He finished his rookie campaign with 40 tackles (18 solos), a fumble recovery, an interception and a team-best eight pass breakups.

Senior Brett Perron (Windham, NH/Central Catholic), who is in his third varsity season, and sophomore Sean McDaniel (Rome, NY/Rome Free Academy) played reserve roles last year and should see more time this season. Perron finished with nine tackles (6 solos) while McDaniel had an unassisted stop.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

Rensselaer's KICKING is expected to be solid as a pair of veterans return. Senior Drew Taranto (Baldwinsville, NY/C.W. Baker) made 4-of-5 field goals, including a long of 33, and 20-of-24 PATs, while classmate Brett Kebea (East Greenbush, NY/Columbia) also has varsity experience. Taranto also returns to handle kick-off duties. On the other side, the Engineers will have a first-year PUNTER.

Handling the RETURN duties will be LoGiudice, an All-Liberty League First Team selection after bringing back 30 punts for 222 yards and 23 kickoffs for 581 yards – all school single season records. Tesiero and Jordan may also see time as returners.

Adam LoGiudice

THE COACHES

King, Rensselaer's winningest FOOTBALL COACH of all time, has a 118-44-2 record for a .725 winning percentage, making him the most successful football coach in terms of wins and winning percentage in the 119-year history of the school's program. Over the past 14 seasons, he has a combined 104-33 (.759) mark, including two perfect regular seasons (9-0 in 1999, 8-0 in 2001), four league championships (1997, 1998, 1999, 2001), six ECAC Bowl appearances (1992, 1993, 1995, 1997, 2002, 2005) – all wins – and three NCAA Playoff appearances (1999, 2001, 2003).

Among the assistant coaches returning are both COORDINATORS. Pat DelMonaco, the offensive coordinator who also serves as the offensive line coach, is back for his fourth season while Chad Martinovich, the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, returns for his third campaign. In addition, five other ASSISTANT COACHES return to the sidelines while four new aides have been added.

THE SCHEDULE

Rensselaer opens the 2006 SEASON with two non-league road games. The Engineers make their season debut on September 9 at Endicott (12pm) before traveling to Utica on September 16 (1:30pm).

RPI kicks off its six-game Liberty League schedule – and its home slate – on September 23 when it hosts Hobart in a key league matchup beginning at 1pm. Becker visits '86 Field for the first meeting between the two schools, a non-league affair, on September 30 (1pm) before the Engineers travel to St. Lawrence on October 7 and Merchant Marine on October 21. Both games, which are league contests, begin at 1pm.

The final three weeks of the year has RPI hosting WPI in the Transit Trophy Game on October 28 (1pm), at Rochester on November 4 (12pm) and home against Union for the Dutchman Shoes Trophy Game and Senior Day in the regular season finale on November 11 (1pm).

ON THE AIR & ON THE WEB

Every game is BROADCAST LIVE on RPI's student station, WRPI, 91.5 FM, and on the internet at www.wrpi.org. All broadcasts are crystal clear, thanks to state-of-the-art technology funded by the Rensselaer Alumni Association. Live stats will also be available at www.rpiathletics.com.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"At Rensselaer you face a lot of adversity on the football field and in the classroom. Football has taught me that teamwork can help overcome this adversity and can also help a collection of individuals reach even greater goals than ever possible by one person. These relationships and moments you experience, as a part of the team, will never be forgotten." – Doug Teator '06

HEAD COACH JOE KING

Rensselaer's winningest head football coach of all time, Joe King returns to the sidelines of '86 Field for his 18th season at the helm.

During his tenure, King has taken the program, which began in 1886, to new heights. In his 17 years he has compiled a 118-44-2 record for a .726 winning percentage, making him the most successful football coach in terms of wins and winning percentage in the 119-year history of Rensselaer football.

Over the past 14 seasons, King has a combined 104-33 (.759) mark, including two perfect regular seasons (9-0 in 1999, 8-0 in 2001), four League Championships (1997, 1998, 1999, 2001), six Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championship Game appearances (1992, 1993, 1995, 1997, 2002, 2005) – all wins – and three NCAA Playoff appearances (1999, 2001, 2003).

In 2003, King led the Engineers to a school-record 11 wins (11-2) and a spot in the Division III National Semi-Finals for the first time in school history. It was RPI's third NCAA Tournament appearance - and fourth trip to the post-season - in the past five years. Among the team's 11 victories were wins in all three of its Trophy Games and the school's first NCAA Tournament win. The Engineers ranked among the leaders in the nation in numerous statistical categories and established more than 50 school records. In the final national rankings, Rensselaer was listed in the top ten in every poll and was recognized as the ECAC Division III Upstate Team of the Year. RPI was also the recipient of the prestigious Division III Lambert Meadowlands Team of the Year Award. Five players earned All-American recognition and King and his staff were honored as the league's Coaching Staff of the Year. In addition, King was selected as the East Region Coach of the Year, the Division III Coach of the Year by Schutt Sports, and Rensselaer's Coach of the Year, as selected by the school's coaching staff.

In 2002, the Engineers finished 8-2 overall, including wins in the Shot Glass Trophy Game against Coast Guard, the Transit Trophy Game against WPI and the ECAC Northeast Championship Game at Worcester St.

The 2001 season marked the second time in the past three the Engineers posted an undefeated regular season (8-0) and were selected to the 28-team NCAA Tournament that determines the Division III National Champion. Rensselaer, which won its fourth league title in the past five years that season, was the top seed in the East Region and played in the second round for the first time in history.

In 1999, the Engineers won their third straight league title while compiling a perfect regular season (9-0) on their way to being invited to the NCAA Playoffs for the first time in school history. In addition, the team climbed to the highest rankings ever at that time in two national polls. RPI also led the entire nation in turnover margin, ranked third in scoring defense, sixth in pass efficiency defense, and seventh in rushing defense.

King, a four-time league Coach of the Year, also led the Engineers to a tremendous campaign in 1997 when Rensselaer was 9-1, including a nine-game winning streak. The only loss came in overtime to eventual NCAA qualifier Coast Guard in the season opener. Rensselaer was ranked as high as fifth in the NCAA Regional rankings and went on to win its fourth ECAC title in six years. King and his assistants not only earned league Staff of the Year honors but they also won the ECAC Upstate New York award.

Since King took over the reigns in 1989 more than 30 pre-season All-Americans, 15 post-season All-Americans (including Rensselaer's first American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) First Team All-American in 1996) and many All-Region and All-Conference honorees have worn the RPI uniform. Additionally, all seven of the school's First Team National Academic All-Americans have suited up for King. Under his tutelage, the Engineers have tied or set almost every school record.

A native of nearby Ballston Spa, N.Y., King is accustomed to winning, not only in college but also at the high school level, earning an impressive 52-23-3 (.686) record. He began his coaching career at St. Peter's High School in Saratoga Springs, N.Y., where he served as athletic director, football coach and baseball coach. He turned around a football program that had not claimed a single win in the previous five seasons. In his second year, King led St. Peter's to a 7-1 record, as well as to ninth place in the New York State rankings. He also led the baseball team to the Parochial League Championship in his two seasons as head coach.

After two years at St. Peter's, King went on to Watervliet High School, where he inherited a program that had only one winning season in 23 years. In his seven years with the Cannoneers, he compiled a 44-16-2 (.726) mark. He guided the team to six winning seasons, including 1979 when it went 8-0-1 and won the Section 2 Class C title. While at Watervliet, King, who also taught social studies, was named the Troy Area High School Coach of the Year by The Record four times and the Capitaland High School Coach of the Year once by the Times Union. Among the players he mentored was Tim Sherwin, who went on to have a standout career as a tight end with the Baltimore Colts and the New York Giants in the National Football League.
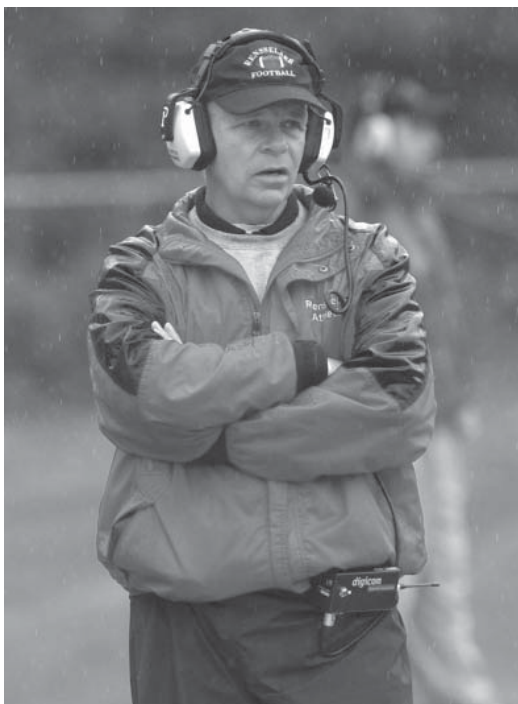

King, who was named the 2002 Rensselaer Person of the Year by the staff of The Polytechnic, the student newspaper, as well as the Coach of the Year by the Institute's coaching staff, arrived at Rensselaer in 1981, spending his first five seasons as an assistant coach. He then enjoyed a three-year stint as associate head coach before being appointed head coach in 1989.

In addition to his duties as head football coach, King also serves as an assistant athletic director, a position he has held for the past six years. Among his duties in that role are handling the athletic department's internship program, coordinating game-day management and heading the department's safety issues and concerns. He has also been the head track & field coach.

A 1970 graduate of Siena College with a bachelor's degree in history, King played football and baseball as an undergraduate.

He and his wife, Gail, make their home in Saratoga Springs. They have two grown sons, Joe and Kevin, who is an assistant with the Engineers.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"As my career at RPI comes to an end, I have no doubt in my mind that my decision not only to attend RPI, but also to participate in the football program has been the best and most rewarding of my life. The thing that has made my time here so special has been the people - my teammates, coaches, trainers, and everyone else in the athletic department. The experiences that I have had with them in the past four years have created bonds and friendships that will last forever. It has been an honor to be part of such a first-rate athletic program." — Matt Pisano '06
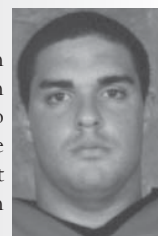

THE ASSISTANT COACHES

PAT DELMONACO
Offensive Coordinator & Offensive Line

Pasqule "Pat" DelMonaco, Jr. joined the Rensselaer football staff in 2003, serving as the offensive line coach. In addition, he is in his second year as the program's offensive coordinator and third as the recruiting coordinator.

In the 2005 season, DelMonaco's offense led the Liberty League in scoring (33.5 points per game) behind the league Rookie of the Year, quarterback Jimmy Robertson. Narrowly missing a spot in the NCAA Tournament, the Engineers were selected for the ECAC Northwest Bowl and defeated St. John Fisher in the Northwest Bowl.

During DelMonaco's first two seasons, the Engineers averaged over 5.7 yards per play and more than 425 yards per contest, including 281 passing. The team rushed for over 100 yards in 12 of 21 games and over 200 yards five times while Rensselaer's quarterbacks threw for over 300 yards nine times and over 400 yards on four ocassions.

DelMonaco, whose offensive line allowed only six sacks in 2004, joined the Engineers from Hudson Valley Community College, where he coached the offensive line in his first two years and the quarterbacks in his third and final season. Between his second and third year with the Vikings, he was a graduate assistant with the offensive line at the University of Illinois.

As a player, the Sleepy Hollow, N.Y., native played center at the University at Albany from 1996 to 2000, captaining the team as a senior. During his four years, the Great Danes posted a 35-7 overall record and won two Eastern Football Conference Championships (1997, 1998).

DelMonaco, who earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in history in 2000, resides in Niskayuna with his wife, Kelly, and their daughter, Julia.

Coach DelMonaco can be reached at

JOHN BARBER
Tight Ends

John Barber is in his first season coaching at Rensselaer.

He joins the Engineers after spending the last three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Hudson Valley Community College. As a member of the Vikings staff, Barber was responsible for the offensive game plan, weekly film breakdown, and the special teams and kickoff return, among other things.

Barber also has experience at the high school level, having served as the offensive coordinator and head junior varsity coach at Schuylerville as well as an assistant coach at Greenwich.

A former football official, he is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and he has served as a clinician at numerous camps, including Penn St. University, King College and the Frank Glazier Mega Clinic.

A native of Schuylerville, N.Y., Barber was a standout tight end at Hudson Valley.

CHAD MARTINOVICH
Defensive Coordinator & Defensive Backs

Chad Martinovich is in his third season with the Engineers.

Martinovich moved from the offense to the defense in 2005, becoming RPI's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. He spent 2004 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Martinovich came to Troy after spending three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Hamilton College. Prior to his stint with the Continentals, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Swarthmore College for three seasons. A former quarterback at Hobart College, Martinovich has also coached the defensive line at Bucknell University (1994), the linebackers at Hamilton (1995-96) and the wide receivers at the University of Albany (1997).

A native of Plattsburgh, N.Y., Martinovich graduated from Hobart in 1994 and earned his master's degree from Albany in 2002. He resides in Troy with his wife, Erin, and their children, Hailey and Ryan.

Coach Martinovich can be reached at (518) 276-6193 & martic3@rpi.edu.

CHRIS SAPP
Wide Receivers

Chris Sapp is in his first season at Rensselaer.

A native of West Palm Beach, Fla., he spent last year at Clemson University, where he served as the administrative assistant for football operations. He has also been the wide receivers coach at North Greenville University in Tigerville, S.C.

A 2005 graduate of North Greenville, Sapp, Rensselaer's football intern, was a three-year letterman and a two-time captain.

Coach Sapp can be reached at (518) 276-6187 & sappc@rpi.edu.

DAN COLE
Quarterbacks

After spending three seasons as the Engineers starting quarterback, Dan Cole is in his third year as the quarterbacks coach for Rensselaer.

As a player, Cole set nearly every school passing record, completing 671-of-1,202 passes for 8,902 yards and 87 touchdowns in 32 games. He averaged 277.1 yards per game while throwing only 26 interceptions. The Albany, N.Y., native also ran 333 times for 823 yards and 13 touchdowns.

As a senior, Cole threw for 3,679 yards, 40 touchdowns and just 11 interceptions in 13 games, leading the Engineers to a school-record 11 wins (11-2) and the NCAA National Semi-Finals. The Liberty League Offensive Performer of the Week four times, he also ran for 276 yards and two touchdowns. He was voted the Offensive Player of the Year by the Liberty League and the ECAC and was a multiple National All-American. He went on to a tryout with the NFL's New England Patriots and in the CFL.

Cole, the team's Offensive Most Valuable Player three times during his career, graduated in 2004 with an EMAC degree.

PETE COSTANZA
Defensive Backs

Pete Costanza is in his first season coaching at Rensselaer.

A New Jersey native, he is the head coach of the Albany Conquest of AF2. Among his responsibilities with the Conquest are all day-to-day football operations, player signings and recruiting, and coordinating the game plans for both the offense and defense.

Costanza has extensive experience in AF2, including as the head coach and offensive coordinator of the Columbus Wardogs, the offensive coordinator of the Iowa Barnstormers, offensive coordinator of the Norfolk Nighthawks and assistant head coach and offensive coordinator of the Roanoke Steam. He has also been an assistant coach with the New Jersey Red Dogs of the Arena Football League.

A graduate of William Paterson, Costanza played wide receiver for the Pioneers, who he helped reach the NCAA Playoffs in 1993.

WILL HEADEN
Outside Linebackers

Assisting for his 17th season, Will Headen is in his second stint as the coach of the linebackers after spending the previous seven years with the defensive secondary. He will also continue to assist with the kickoff unit.

Prior to coaching the defensive backs, Headen served two years leading the running backs, while the team's running game enjoyed two of its most successful seasons in the history of the program. He began his Rensselaer coaching career with the linebackers before spending the next five seasons mentoring the defensive ends.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Headen has been affiliated with RPI even longer than his coaching career. An outstanding linebacker and defensive end for four years for the Engineers, he notched 222 career tackles, including a team-leading 111 in 1988. In addition, he finished his career as the school record-holder in sacks in a game with 3.5 against St. Lawrence.

KEVIN KING
Inside Linebackers

Kevin King is in his third season of his second stint as a coach for the Engineers, having also served as the team's intern. For the second straight year, he will coach the linebackers and assist with special teams.

A 2001 graduate of Rensselaer with a degree in management, King was a member of the nationally-ranked baseball team.

He and his wife, Melissa, reside in Troy.

Kaplan and Newsweek announced that Rensselaer has been named to the elite "New Ivies" list, published in the 2007 Kaplan/Newsweek "How to Get into College Guide."

This year's Kaplan/Newsweek guide introduces for the first time the "New Ivies": colleges whose first-rate academic programs, combined with a population boom in top students, have fueled their rise in stature and favor among the nation's top students, administrators, and faculty — edging them to a competitive status rivaling the Ivy League. Rensselaer was one of 25 schools selected as a "New Ivy," based on admissions statistics as well as interviews with administrators, students, faculty, and alumni.

JOHN MALETTA
Running Backs

John Maletta is in his 11th year with the program.

This season he will continue to coach the running backs and assist with the kickoff return team. He previously served as the coach of the tight ends and wide receivers as well as the offensive line. He has also coached the defensive backs during his tenure with the Engineers.

Maletta has also worked as an assistant football coach at the high school level, having spent two seasons with Catholic Central High School in Troy, N.Y.

Maletta's playing days were at Louisiana State University, where he was a linebacker for the Tigers. He also played at Hudson Valley Community College, where he earned his degree.

In addition to coaching, Maletta works for the U.S. Postal Service.
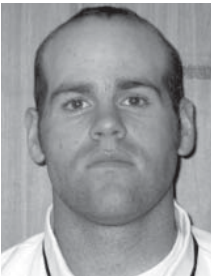

BOB SCHOONMAKER
Offensive Line

Bob Schoonmaker is in his fourth season with the Engineers and first with the offensive line. He spent the first three seasons coaching the tight ends.

Schoonmaker spent eight years as the head coach at Granville Central School, where he led the team to the 1995 Division Championship – its first since 1981 – and was named Coach of the Year by the Greenwich Journal Press.

He started coaching in 1992 as the defensive coordinator for Whitehall Central School, where his unit was not scored upon in five consecutive games during the 1993 season.

A four-year inside linebacker and tight end under Joe King at Watervliet High School, Schoonmaker was a member of the Canoneers' 1979 undefeated Colonial Council and Section 2 Class C Championship team, earning numerous honors, including All-State recognition.

Schoonmaker, who attended Hudson Valley Community College and Adirondack Community College, resides in Granville, with his wife of 19 years, Dorie, and two daughters, Rachel and Renee.

BLAISE ZAMBRANO
Linebackers

Blaise Zambrano is in his first season at Rensselaer.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., he spent the past 12 seasons as the defensive coordinator for Timberlane High School in Plaistow, N.H. Among his duties were to design and implement weekly game plans, on field instruction, breaking down films, and strength and conditioning.

Zambrano has also served Timberlane as its head baseball coach, head indoor track coach and varsity strength coach since 1997.

In addition, he is a teacher at Hillsboro County Department of Corrections in Manchester, N.H.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"My time at Rensselaer has been so special because of the people I have met along the way. The coaches, staff, and especially my teammates have been great. I am extremely lucky to have been able to play football with such an awesome group of guys. I hope to stay in contact with everyone long after football. There are so many stories, jokes, and memories that will stay with me forever, and I have the team to thank." — Jimmy Motzkin '05

2005 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1: SEPTEMBER 10
Rensselaer 34, Endicott 7
Troy, N.Y.

Jay Bernardo rushed for 249 yards and four touchdowns, including an NCAA record 99-yarder, to lead the Engineers to a 34-7 victory over Endicott in a non-league game at '86 Field. With the win, RPI began the season 1-0 while the Gulls fell to 0-2.

A junior, Bernardo carried 32 times, scoring on runs of two, one, three and 99 yards. In addition to tying the NCAA record, he also matched RPI's record, originally set by Don Patria in 1981. Bernardo, who also caught three passes for 23 yards, opened the scoring in the first quarter when he capped a five-play, 30-yard drive with a two-yard plunge. The extra point failed and Rensselaer led 6-0 after one quarter.

Bernardo added to RPI's lead with his second touchdown, this time from one yard out at 6:57 of the second quarter. A successful two-point conversion pass from Frank Catellier to Brendan McGowan put the home team ahead 14-0. Endicott wasted little time responding, going 68 yards on seven plays to pull within seven points with 4:08 left in the first half. Junior running back Gerard Festa scored on an eight-yard run to the right side and Adam Maher added the extra point.

Rensselaer pulled away with three second half touchdowns. Catellier, a junior, connected with freshman wide receiver Eren Savasli from 36 yards out for a 21-7 lead at 6:23 of the third quarter before Bernardo scored two more touchdowns in the fourth. He ran from three yards out at 13:40 to cap a six-play, 62-yard drive and he broke free for 99 yards at the 8:23 mark. Junior Brett Kebea added the extra points on two touchdowns for the final score.

Catellier finished with 141 yards, a touchdown, and two interceptions on 13-of-22 passing. He also ran five times for 67 yards, including a 54-yard long. Savasli had two receptions for 58 yards. As a team, Rensselaer finished with 465 yards of total offense to Endicott's 206.

Defensively, sophomore John Tesiero had eight tackles, including six unassisted and one for a loss (1 yard), and senior Tim Frame had eight stops (5 solos) and a pass breakup.

For Endicott, junior Jeff Trinque rushed 12 times for a team-high 57 yards while Festa ran for 44 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. Vinny Orlando and Alex Smith combined for 88 yards with an interception on 7-of-21 passing.

Jared Giblin and TJ Sawyer each had six tackles to pace the defense. Giblin had four solos while Sawyer had three unassisted, one for a loss (3 yards), a forced fumble and a pass breakup.

GAME 2: SEPTEMBER 17
Rensselaer 41, Utica 10
Troy, N.Y.

Rensselaer enjoyed a balanced offensive effort and a solid defensive performance to defeat Utica, 41-10, in a non-league game at '86 Field. The Engineers, who improved to 2-0, rushed for 215 yards and passed for 259 while holding the Pioneers to 170 yards of total offense. With the loss, Utica fell to 2-1.

Running back Jay Bernardo and quarterback Jimmy Robertson led Rensselaer's offensive attack. A junior, Bernardo rushed 19 times for 132 yards and three touchdowns while Robertson, a freshman, completed 24-of-32 passes for 259 yards and three touchdowns. He did not throw any interceptions in what was his first varsity game. Bernardo also caught five passes for 37 yards.

Utica opened the scoring on a 27-yard field goal with 6:44 remaining in the first quarter. Rensselaer came right back, however, to take the lead, 7-3, when Robertson found sophomore Brendan McGowan for a 15-yard touchdown with 2:26 left in the opening quarter. RPI's scoring drive covered ten plays and 65 yards in 4:08. The Engineers added six points when Robertson hit junior tight end Jon Branche for a 34-yard touchdown as the first quarter expired. The extra point was missed and RPI led, 13-6, after one.

Rensselaer increased its lead to 20-3 when Bernardo capped a seven-play, 30-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run with 3:24 left in the second quarter.

RPI exploded for 21 points in the third quarter to go ahead, 41-3. McGowan caught a 16-yarder from Robertson with 9:32 left before Bernardo scored twice within a minute late in the stanza to close out Rensselaer's scoring.

Defensively for the Engineers, which held Utica to just 40 yards rushing, sophomore linebacker Tom Rayhill had seven tackles, including four solos and a nine-yard sack, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Linebacker Jimmy Motzkin, a graduate student, added a team-high eight tackles, all assisted.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"During my four years I have created many fond memories. There are the tailgate parties in North lot after the games, the coaches, the trainers, the mud pit that Anderson and '86 Field become, Coach King pulling the socks up on the opposing teams field, the road trips, the playoffs, but most importantly my fellow teammates. The comradery and friendships created during my career have made my time at Rensselaer truly special." — Jeff Douglas '06

Hobart 56, Rensselaer 48 3OT
Geneva, N.Y.

Hobart outlasted visiting Rensselaer 56-48 in triple overtime in the longest game in both team's histories. Statesmen junior quarterback Shawn Mizro threw for 290 yards and tied his own single game record with five touchdown passes.

In the third overtime, the Statesmen, who played offense first, scored on fourth and goal from the 1-yard line on a run over left tackle by junior Doug Blakowski and then converted a two-point pass.

When RPI (2-1, 0-1 Liberty) tried to answer, Hobart (3-0, 1-0) came with intense pressure, hurrying freshman quarterback Jimmy Robertson on three of the Engineers' four plays, all incompletions. Robertson finished the day 28-of-54 for 394 yards with five touchdowns and one interception.

The Statesmen charged out to a 24-0 lead. Fullback Chris Whipple opened the scoring on a 4-yard reception from Mizro for the only points of the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Blakowski scored from 23 yards out to put Hobart up 14-0. Kicker Kevin Olson followed that up with a 29-yard field goal at the 5:51 mark. Mizro completed the run with a 30-yard toss to James Wright.

The Engineers broke through the Hobart defense, which did not allow a point in the season's first nine quarters, when junior tight end Jon Branche hauled in a pass that was over the head of its intended receiver, but nonetheless went for 48 yards and the score. The point after try hit the upright.

In the third quarter, Branche hoisted his team on his back, scoring from 12 yards, 29 yards, and 26 yards out. He finished with 12 catches for 217 yards and a record five touchdowns.

Meanwhile, Hobart continued to put points up, scoring on a 47-yard Olson field goal and an 18-yard pass play.

Hobart's lead dwindled to just eight points to start the fourth quarter. In the fourth frame, RPI missed field goals from 31 yards and 41 yards, but equalized with 5:27 remaining in regulation. Tailback Jay Bernardo capped a 12-play, 53-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge on fourth and goal. Bernardo finished with 122 yards rushing and two TDs.

The two teams combined for 1,019 yards of total offense and 14 touchdowns.

Defensively, RPI graduate student linebacker Jimmy Motzkin led all tacklers with 14, including two sacks.

GAME 4: OCTOBER 1
Rensselaer 17, Coast Guard 3
New London, Conn. • Shot Glass Trophy Game

Jay Bernardo carried 29 times for 146 yards and he also recovered a fumble for a touchdown, leading Rensselaer (3-1 overall; 1-1 Liberty) to a 17-3 Liberty League win over Coast Guard (2-2; 0-2) as the Engineers retained the Shot Glass Trophy in the 70th and possible final meeting between the two teams.

RPI scored the only points of the first half on the opening possession of the game as Jimmy Robertson (15-of-31 for 194 yards, TD, INT) threw a 16-yard touchdown to Jon Branche (5 catches, 90 yards) capping a 7-play, 65-yard drive. Bernardo had 35 yards on the drive as RPI led 7-0 with 11:27 left in the first quarter.

Jimmy Robertson

On its first possession, Coast Guard drove to the RPI 17 before Lance Lynch fumbled at the 14-yard line on a 2nd-and-five.

Coast Guard had a chance to get on the board early in the second quarter, but a 34-yard field goal attempt by David Lieberman was blocked by Graham Boyd with 13:48 left in the second quarter.

Following a pair of punts by each team, RPI took over at its own 38-yard line with 4:07 left and drove down to the Coast Guard 11. Bernardo fumbled on fourth-and-one, but Branche recovered at the five for a first down. However, the Bears' Justin Andrews intercepted Robertson in the end zone with nine seconds left on the next play to keep the score at 7-0 at halftime.

Coast Guard used a 10-play, 49-yard drive capped by a Lieberman 29-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half to cut the lead to 7-3 with 12:21 remaining in the third quarter.

On its first possession of the second half, RPI answered with a 12-play, 71-yard drive which ended with Robertson fumbling near the goal line, but Bernardo falling on it in the end zone for a 14-3 lead with 8:23 left in the third quarter.

Coast Guard drove to the RPI 34, but turned it over after a 4th-and-19 pass was imcomplete with 11:17 left in the game.

The Engineers and Bears, who are moving to the NEFC, are no longer on each other's schedules.

GAME 5: OCTOBER 8
Rensselaer 35, St. Lawrence 13
Troy, N.Y.

Rensselaer got three touchdown passes from Jimmy Robertson to Jon Branche and 186 yards and two touchdowns from running back Jay Bernardo to defeat St. Lawrence, 35-13, in a constant downpour at '86 Field. With the victory, Rensselaer improved to 4-1 overall and 2-1 in the Liberty League. The Saints fell to 2-3 and 1-2.

St. Lawrence jumped out to a quick lead when it marched down the field on the game's first possession. The drive, which covered eight plays and 85 yards, was culminated with a 21-yard touchdown pass down the middle of the field from junior quarterback Matt Bezio to sophomore wide receiver Mike O'Donnell at 12:52 of the opening quarter. Rensselaer answered six minutes later when Robertson, a freshman, found Branche, a junior tight end, from seven yards out. Robertson and Branche connected again with 39 seconds left in the quarter, this time on a fade into the right corner, to complete an 11-play, 53-yard drive. The extra point was blocked and Rensselaer led 13-7 after the first quarter.

The Engineers got their first touchdown of the second quarter when Robertson found Branche from 22 yards out with 5:47 left in the stanza. A two-point conversion pass from Brendan McGowan to Adam Van Horn made it 21-7 in favor of the home team. The score came one play after RPI's Tim Frame recovered a St. Lawrence fumble.

Bernardo, a junior, put RPI on the board for a second time in the quarter when he ran to the right, cut back to the left and scampered in from 25 yards out with 1:51 remaining. Drew Taranto's second point-after-kick of the day made it 28-7 at the end of the half, which saw Rensselaer gain 327 yards of total offense, including 233 through the air. St. Lawrence had 116 yards, including 60 passing.

The Engineers increased its lead to 35-7 on a 1-yard run from Bernardo with 7:25 remaining in the third quarter, capping an 8-play, 66-yard drive. St. Lawrence found the end zone three minutes later when Bezio and O'Donnell hooked up from 24 yards out with 4:11 left. The extra point was missed, making the score 35-13. The Saints gained possession of the ball after recovering a fumble – one of seven in the game – on the Rensselaer 27-yard line.

In addition to his 186 yards rushing, Bernardo also had four receptions for 54 yards. Branche finished with ten catches for 98 yards while McGowan had seven for 58 yards. Robertson completed 25-of-43 passes for 268 yards and one interception.

Defensively for RPI, Grant Cochran had a team-best 11 tackles, including eight unassisted and one for a loss of ten yards. Tom Rayhill added seven tackles, including five solos and one for a loss (1 yard), and he forced a fumble.

GAME 6: OCTOBER 22
Rensselaer 41, Merchant Marine 0
Troy, N.Y.

Rensselaer got four touchdown passes from freshman quarterback Jimmy Robertson and the defense held the United States Merchant Marine Academy to just 123 yards of total offense and off the scoreboard in a 41-0 victory at '86 Field. The Engineers improved to 5-1 overall and 3-1 in the league while the Mariners fell to 1-7 and 0-5.

The Engineers broke out on top on their second attempt when Robertson connected with classmate Justin Heafy from three yards out at 7:45 of the first quarter to culminate an 8-play, 60-yard drive. Rensselaer took advantage of a USMMA turnover to go ahead 14-0 just 1:43 later. One play after a fumbled snap by the Mariners' punter, RPI junior running back Jay Bernardo scored on a four-yard run.

Robertson put RPI ahead 20-0 when he hit sophomore wide receiver Brendan McGowan on a three-yard fade with 5:47 left in the second quarter. The quarterback set up his touchdown strike, which concluded a 9-play, 64-yard drive, with a 32-yard run.

Robertson and McGowan hooked up again on RPI's first possession of the second half, this time from 11 yards out at the 12:37 mark. Drew Taranto's third extra point of the day made it 27-0. Senior linebacker Grant Cochran put RPI ahead 33-0 when he intercepted a lateral and scored from 20 yards out with 4:37 left in the third quarter. Taranto's point-after made it 34-0.

The third touchdown pass from Robertson to McGowan, this time from 48 yards out, and Taranto's extra point put RPI ahead 41-0 at 13:31 of the fourth quarter.

Robertson completed 24-of-33 passes for 267 yards, four touchdowns and an interception. He also ran eight times for 29 yards. McGowan caught 11 passes for 143 yards and three scores. As a team, the Engineers finished with 378 yards of total offense, including 267 through the air.

Defensively, RPI held the Mariners to 32 yards rushing and 91 yards passing in posting its first shutout since beating St. Lawrence, 55-0, on Nov. 8, 2003. Cochran led the way with six tackles, including five solos and one for a loss of three yards, an interception with a 12-yard return, a pass breakup and the fumble recovery for the touchdown.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"The thing that made my time at Rensselaer so special is the fact that I had the chance to play college football with my brother. Another reason is that I met one of my closest friends who I will never forget. If it was not for him, I don't think I could have made it all four years. Brent Hanson is like a brother for me and he will always be and that is special to me." – Otis Williams '05
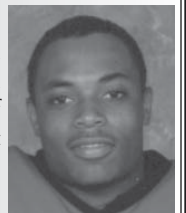

GAME 7: OCTOBER 29
Rensselaer 31, WPI 15
Worcester, Mass. • Transit Trophy Game

Jay Bernardo rushed for 150 yards and one touchdown and Brendan McGowan caught five passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns in leading Rensselaer to a 31-15 victory over Worcester Polytechnic Institute in a Liberty League contest at Alumni Field. With the win, Rensselaer upped its record to 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the league. The Engineers also retained the Transit Trophy for the ninth consecutive year. WPI fell to 4-3 and 2-3.

WPI built a 12-0 lead by scoring on its first three possessions. The Engineers scored on a 21-play drive on its first possession. The 67-yard march, which took 9:19 off the clock, culminated in a 27-yard field goal by senior placekicker Jeremy Griffin.

WPI then marched 95 yards on 14 plays, taking another 6:48 off the clock, scoring on a 5-yard run by senior Brian Farragher with 11:51 left in the second quarter. The extra point attempt was blocked by junior Graham Boyd.

WPI then ran off another ten plays, driving 57 yards, but managed only another field goal, this one of 32 yards, and the Engineers led 12-0 with 6:19 left in the second quarter.

Rensselaer put together its first decent drive in the last two minutes of the first half. With 28 seconds left, Jon Branche scored on an 8-yard pass from Jimmy Robertson. Drew Taranto booted the extra point to make it 12-7 in favor of WPI.

WPI was not finished in that half, however. Senior Adam Evans returned the kickoff 34 yards to the RPI 41 and Rob Pantalone hit Mike Butler for 36 yards to the RPI 5-yard line. Griffin nailed his third field goal of the half for a 15-7 lead at the intermission.

RPI received the kickoff to start the third quarter and marched 64 yards on nine plays. Taranto kicked a 27-yard field goal with 11:25 left, to cut the margin to 15-10. McGowan then found himself behind the secondary and scored on a 78-yard bomb from Robertson with 7:39 left in the third. Two possessions later, the same duo hooked up again on a 42-yard touchdown and RPI led 24-15.

A 50-yard punt set RPI back onto its own 2-yard line to start the fourth quarter but nine plays and 98 yards later, Bernardo scampered in from three yards out to give the Engineers its final 31-15 margin.

Bernardo led all rushers with 150 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries. Robertson rushed for another 45 yards on four carries. In passing, he was 18-for-32 for 329 yards and three TDs. McGowan caught five passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns while Branche also caught five passes for 82 yards and one TD.

On defense, Mark Byrne had eight tackles (8 solos), including three for lost yards and one sack. Jimmy Motzkin also had eight tackles (4 solos) while Adam LoGiudice had three tackles, an interception, and a break-up.

GAME 8: NOVEMBER 5
Rensselaer 20, Rochester 14
Troy, N.Y.

Junior running back Jay Bernardo rushed for 116 yards, including a tie-breaking 43-yard touchdown late in the fourth quarter, to lead Rensselaer to a 20-14 come-from-behind win over Rochester at Harkness Field.

With their victory, the Engineers, who scored 20 points in the fourth quarter, improved to 7-1 overall and 5-1 in the Liberty League. Rochester fells to 4-5 overall and 3-3 in the league.

Bernardo broke out for 106 yards on 15 carries in the second half, including his long touchdown, which came with just 3:38 remaining in the fourth quarter. His late game efforts overshadowed an outstanding performance by Rochester running back Matt Bielecki, who rushed for 176 yards on 37 carries.

The Yellowjackets got on the scoreboard first when quarterback Aaron Molisani hooked up with wide receiver Tom Shay from 25-yards out to cap a 15-play, 61-yard drive. Sophomore Rob Corey, who had a 34-yard field goal blocked earlier in the quarter, hit the extra point and the Yellowjackets led 7-0 with 1:02 left in the opening quarter.

Following scoreless second and third quarters, RPI pulled to within one just seven seconds into the fourth quarter when freshman quarterback Jimmy Robertson found junior tight end Jon Branche in the back of the end zone from a yard out. The extra point failed and the Engineers trailed, 7-6.

After a Rochester punt, RPI drove 82-yards on eight plays, capped by a 22-yard touchdown pass from Robertson to sophomore wide receiver Brendan McGowan. Robertson found Branche for the two-point conversion and Rensselaer led, 14-7, with 9:34 to play.

Rochester came right back and scored a touchdown to tie the game at 14-14, set up by a 48-yard return to the RPI 40-yard line by senior Michael Dermody on the ensuing kickoff. Junior Pat O'Brien capped the drive, which was highlighted by a 26-yard completion from Molisani to junior tight end Pat McCarty, when he scored on a sweep on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line. Corey's extra point tied the game with 5:35 to play. The touchdown and extra point were the first points Rensselaer surrendered in the fourth quarter all season.

Bernardo's touchdown, a run to the right which he cut back to the middle and outran the defense, completed a four-play, 84-yard drive and RPI led, 20-14. Rochester got two more chances with the ball but Molisani was intercepted once and the clock ran out.

Robertson finished with 145 yards and two touchdowns on 12-of-24 passing. He was intercepted once. McGowan caught five passes for 73 yards and a score while Branche had four catches for 51 yards and a TD.

Defensively, Jimmy Motzkin had a game-high 15 tackles, including three unassisted, 1.5 for lost yards (11) and a nine-yard sack. He also forced a fumble, which he recovered and returned 29 yards.

The teams combined for 985 yards and the 91 points were the most combined points in the series' history.

RPI opened the scoring at 8:53 of the first quarter but Union took a 7-3 lead at 6:10. Graham Boyd caught a nine-yard pass from Robertson at 5:50 but Union regained the lead on a seven-yard pass with 4:19 left for a 14-10 lead. Bernardo had a 15-yard scoring run with seven seconds left in the first quarter and RPI led, 17-14, after the first stanza.

Taranto hit a 22-yard field goal at 12:23 of the second to extend the lead to 20-14 but an eight yard touchdown pass at 8:41 gave Union a one point lead. RPI took a 28-21 advantage at 5:53 on a four-yard run by Bernardo, for what would turn out to be the Engineers' final lead of the day. Arcidiacono had a two-yard scoring run at 1:17 then Marotti hit Angiletta just 1:16 later for a 35-28 lead at halftime.

A four-yard run by Marotti with 1:25 left was the only scoring in the third quarter and the Dutchmen had a 42-28 lead. Bernardo scored at 12:25 of the fourth on a one-yard run before Arcidiacono went over the 200 yard mark for Union with a 45-yard rush with 3:01 left in the fourth. Eren Savasli caught a nine-yard pass from Robertson with 1:16 left and the Engineers trailed 49-42, but the ensuing on-side kick went out of bounds.

RPI was led defensively by Tom Rayhill, who had 11 tackles, including nine solos, and Tim Frame and Jimmy Motzkin, who each had ten tackles. Union linebacker Kevin Flike led the Dutchmen with seven tackles.

GAME 10: NOVEMBER 19
Rensselaer 26, St. John Fisher 22
Pittsford, N.Y. • ECAC Northwest Bowl
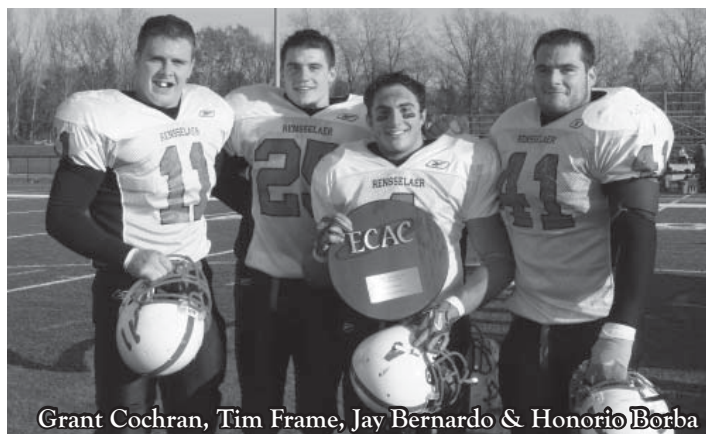

Grant Cochran, Tim Frame, Jay Bernardo & Honorio Borba

Sophomore wide receiver Brendan McGowan scored on a 47-yard pass from freshman quarterback Jimmy Robertson with just 1:48 left to give the Engineers a 26-22 come-from-behind victory over St. John Fisher in the ECAC Northwest Bowl. Rensselaer junior running back Jay Bernardo, who rushed for 160 yards and a touchdown on 33 carries, was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

With the win, RPI concluded the season with an 8-2 mark, giving the senior class a school record-tying 32 wins (32-10) in the past four seasons. Also setting a new school standard was junior tight end Jon Branche, who had two touchdown receptions to become the school's all-time leader in career touchdown catches with 29.

Branche finished with ten receptions for 102 yards while Robertson completed 27-of-41 attempts for 243 yards and three scoring strikes.

Fisher jumped out to a 13-0 second quarter lead before Robertson and Branche connected form nine yards out with just 39 seconds left in the first half.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"I feel like I am a part of a very special football program. The coaches care about more than just my play on the field, and so do the equipment guys, the training staff, and even the Athletic Director. It is hard to count how many people have gone out of their way to help my family and me. I am truly grateful to have had so many people help me and look out for me. The attitude and character of this program is uncommon and I'm grateful I could be a part of it." – Grant Cochran '06

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"My time at Rensselaer has been very special due to the people I have met, both on and off the football field. I have worked with many talented coaches and teachers and have been inspired by the great friends and teammates I have met here. It is truly the people here at Rensselaer that makes the difference. I know that all the experiences I've had and lessons I've learned during the past four years will carry with me throughout my life." — Tim Frame '06

Reflecting on RPI...

"I've found in my four years at RPI that I have been involved with a first-tier educational system and a competitive athletic program on the national level. It is not common to find an institution that excels in both areas. Knowing that the school and its administrators are passionate about both, I knew this was the right fit for me." – Collin Adalian '05

1992 ECAC Northeast Championship Game
RPI 28, Bridgewater St. 25 • Swenson Field • Bridgewater, MA
Quarterback Brandon Grabowski threw for 175 yards and a touchdown and rushed for two more scores, including the game-winning TD at 8:03 of the fourth quarter to lead Rensselaer to a victory in its first-ever post-season appearance. Kurt Stapleton added 99 yards on the ground and Dave Eddy had 15 tackles (7 solos) and a pass breakup. With the win, the Engineers set a new school record for victories in a season (8-2).

1993 ECAC Northwest Championship Game
RPI 13, Plymouth St. 10 • '86 Field • Troy, NY
In the first home playoff game in the program's history, the defense stifled the Panthers, holding the visitors to just 2.7 yards per play (169 total yards). Chris Mastergeorge led the way with 12 tackles, including three unassisted, and a pass breakup. Offensively, running back J.P. Peterson, the game's Most Valuable Player, rushed for 137 yards and quarterback Brandon Grabowski threw for a touchdown and ran for another.

J.P. Peterson

1995 ECAC Northwest Championship Game
RPI 69, Worcester St. 12 • Ned Harkness Field • Troy, NY
In the first football game ever played at Ned Harkness Field, running back Dan McGovern rushed for a school-record 320 yards and four touchdowns, including runs of 48, 58, 6 and 15 yards, to lead the Engineers over the Lancers. Rensselaer scored 13 points in the first quarter, 17 in the second, 27 in the third and 12 in the fourth on its way to scoring the second most points in a single game in school history.

1997 ECAC Northeast Championship Game
RPI 14, Worcester St. 13 • John Coghlin Field • Worcester, MA
Defensive back Matt Vittengl blocked a Worcester St. extra point attempt with 2:53 to play to seal the victory for the Engineers. Quarterback Matt Robbens led RPI, throwing for a touchdown and running for another to earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award. Vittengl finished with seven tackles, including a team-high six solos, two pass breakups, an interception and the blocked kick.

1999 NCAA First Round Game
Rowan 29, RPI 10 • Ned Harkness Field • Troy, NY
In the first NCAA Playoff Game in the program's history, Rowan scored on its first two possessions and held Rensselaer out of the end zone until the fourth quarter. The loss was the first of the season for the Engineers,

REFLECTING ON RPI...
"My time has been so special because of what the football program has given me and the friendships I have made. I know that the lessons I learned will continue to be useful for years to come. These past four years have been the best years of my life. ... There are even more memories and stories that I will remember that are outside of football. I did a lot of learning and growing up and Rensselaer has been a great teacher." — Ramses Jimenez '05 who posted the first perfect regular season record (9-0) in the school's history. Matt Vittengl finished with a game-high 21 tackles (16 solos).

2001 NCAA Second Round Game
Ithaca 27, RPI 10 • '86 Field • Troy, NY
Following a Rensselaer field goal, Ithaca scored three straight touchdowns and controlled the clock on its way to victory. RPI, which was playing its first-ever NCAA Second Round game after earning the top seed and a first round bye, finished with an 8-1 record. Wide receiver Evan Cochran made nine receptions for 147 yards while Marc Blevins had 16 tackles (9 solos) and an interception in the loss.

2002 ECAC Northwest Championship Game
RPI 55, Worcester St. 29 • Coughlin Field • Worcester, MA
Evan and Flynn Cochran accounted for five touchdowns, including two in the second quarter when the Engineers exploded for 35 points to take an insurmountable lead. Evan caught a TD pass and ran for another while Flynn rushed for three scores. Quarterback Dan Cole, the game's MVP, threw one scoring strike and ran for two others.

Flynn (#3) and Evan (#17) Cochran

2003 NCAA First Round Game
RPI 34, Curry 20 • '86 Field • Troy, NY
Rensselaer earned its first-ever NCAA Playoff Game victory behind four touchdown passes from Dan Cole, including three to Flynn Cochran. Cole finished with 362 yards through the air while Cochran caught 15 passes for 216 yards. Defensively, Grant Cochran had 18 tackles, including six unassisted and a sack (4 yards), with a pass breakup.

2003 NCAA Second Round Game
RPI 40, Springfield 34 • Benedum Field • Springfield, MA
In a game with 40 miles-per-hour winds, quarterback Dan Cole threw for 348 yards and five touchdowns as the fifth-seeded Engineers upended top-seeded Springfield. Grant Cochran finished with 13 tackles, including ten unassisted and two for lost yards (7), to lead a defense that did not allow a pass completion.

2003 NCAA Regional Final Game
RPI 21, Ithaca 16 • '86 Field Troy, NY
Playing for the first time ever in the month of December, Rensselaer scored on long pass plays on its first two possessions and held off the visiting Bombers in a game played in blizzard-like conditions. Quarterback Dan Cole tallied 268 yards passing and three touchdowns while wide receiver Pat Hughes had 12 receptions for 144 yards and a touchdown.

Blizzard Bowl 2003

2003 NCAA National Semi-Final Game
St. John's 38, RPI 10 • Clemens Stadium • Collegeville, MN
St. John's broke open a tie game with a third quarter touchdown and three more in the fourth to end Rensselaer's most successful season ever. The Engineers, who got 237 yards passing and 21 yards rushing from quarterback Dan Cole, concluded the season with a school-record 11 wins (11-2). RPI, which got nine tackles (6 solos) from linebacker Chris Pierz, would later be awarded the ECAC Upstate Team of the Year Award as well as the program's first-ever Lambert Trophy. The Johnnies, who saw running back Josh Nelson compile 47 rushing yards and 192 receiving yards, went on to win the Stagg Bowl.

Dan Cole

2005 ECAC Northwest Championship Game
RPI 26, St. John Fisher 22 • Growney Stadium • Pittsford, NY
Wide receiver Brendan McGowan scored on a 47-yard pass from quarterback Jimmy Robertson with just 1:48 left to give the Engineers a come-from-behind victory. Rensselaer running back Jay Bernardo, who rushed for 160 yards and a touchdown on 33 carries, was the game's Most Outstanding Player. Defensively, Grant Cochran (5 solos) and Jimmy Motzkin (4 solos) tied for the team lead with nine tackles apiece. With the win, the senior class tied the school record for victories in a four-year span (32-10).

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"Rensselaer has been so special because, coming from Hudson Valley Community College, I never had a tight knit group like the kids here. Everyone was always for himself. Here, everyone is always about the team first, and I like that. Also, I made a lot of friends that I will have for the rest of my life. I also like the comradery that football brings to the table. Finally, this school challenges you academically and athletically, which is the best of both worlds." – Danny Pizzarelli '06

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"Going to Rensselaer has given me the opportunity to experience excellent academics and meet incredible people. In the time I have spent here, I have learned who I am and who I want to become. This is a place that I will miss, and proud to say I am a part of. In my four years, I have been able to play on the varsity soccer team as well as the varsity football team, which is something not too many schools can offer. The football team is like nothing I have ever been a part of, their sense of teamwork and respect for one another is unmatched anywhere else in the school, and I am thankful for the chance to be a part of it." – Greg Goehle '06

RENSSELAER & THE NFL

Former Rensselaer student-athlete and graduate assistant football coach Matt Patricia is the linebackers coach for the New England Patriots.

A member of the Class of '96, Patricia joined the Patriots in 2004 and spent his first season as an offensive coaching assistant. He was the team's assistant offensive line coach in 2005 – helping New England win the Super Bowl – before taking over the linebackers.

A former offensive lineman for the Engineers, Patricia graduated from Rensselaer in 1996 with a degree in aeronautical engineering.

Another former RPI assistant coach, Bob Surace, is also working the NFL sidelines. He is the assistant offensive line coach for the Cincinnati Bengals.

Harry Neugold is the only player in Rensselaer football history to be selected in the National Football League draft. Chosen by the Los Angeles Rams in the 17th round (219th pick overall) of the 1950 draft, Neugold played in three pre-season games but never in a regular season contest.

RPI FOOTBALL IN THE ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Below is the alphabetical list of the former Rensselaer football student-athletes who have been inducted into RPI's Athletics Hall of Fame, including 2006 honoree Glenn Arnold.

Arnold joins Mike Gordon '00 (track & field), Laura Gregor '00 (soccer & softball), Joel Laing '00 (hockey) and John Walsh '88 (basketball) in the Class of 2006.

Glenn Arnold

Krishaun Gilmore (right), a 2005 inductee into the Rensselaer Athletics Hall of Fame, worked out for numerous NFL teams in 1998. Former standout quarterback Dan Cole, had a tryout with the New England Patriots in 2004. Cole is RPI's quarterbacks coach.

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"Over my four years of college, nothing has been more special and given me more memories than RPI Football. Whether it was a scrimmage against Hudson Valley, a JV game at Union, traveling to Minnesota, or simply getting yelled at in practice, nothing has meant more to me than playing for Coach King and the rest of the coaches. The memories and friendships I've made as an RPI football player, I will cherish forever ... and I wish the team nothing but the greatest success in years to come." – Adam Van Horn '06

THE FACILITIES

While planning for our Athletic Complex (drawings) continues with Sasaki Associates, Rensselaer's football team will utilize its current facilities, which include a grass game field ('86 Field), a grass practice field (Anderson Field), a field turf practice field (Harkness Field) and a state-of-the-art fitness facility (Mueller Center).

THE RFAA

Dear Friends, Family, Fans & Supporters of Rensselaer Football:

I am pleased to have the opportunity to write to you about the RFAA (Rensselaer Football Alumni Association). As we enter our fifth year, our numbers and participation continue to grow.

We all share a passion for our program and take great pride in its past, present and future successes. We look forward to helping the RPI football family grow larger and stronger.

The goals of the RFAA are:
1. To ensure the Rensselaer football program continues to be one of the most successful in Division III.
2. To enhance the experience of RPI's student-athletes
3. To encourage alumni involvement in the program after graduation.

It is a pleasure seeing alumni from the 60's through the new millennium at the games. In addition to a great football season, it was a productive year for the association. Many alumni helped last year's seniors with job placement and also helped some of this year's players with co-op opportunities. Also, more alumni than ever were involved in helping recruit the class of 2010.

The alumni organized the annual team banquet, which was held at Franklin Plaza in Troy, and hosted a reception for the parents on the eve of the banquet. As always, the alumni golf tournament and raffle was a great success. We saw many new faces and we're excited about increasing the number of participating alumni and friends of the program.

If you are interested in becoming involved in the alumni association, please contact one of the coaching staff members or visit us on our website at www.rpifootball.com.

We are looking forward to the 2005 season, increasing the alumni participation and heightening our involvement in the experience of being a Rensselaer football player.

Good Luck to the team this year. Let's Go Red!

Sincerely,

Mark Clark '89
President
Rensselaer Football Alumni Association

THE LIBERTY LEAGUE

The Liberty League sponsors championships in 24 sports. The member institutions of the league place the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience and on the successful completion of its student-athletes' academic programs.

The member institutions seek to establish and maintain an environment in which a student-athlete's athletic activities are conducted as an integral part of the educational experience.

Originally founded as the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association in 1995, the conference was renamed the Liberty League (www.libertyleaguesports.org) during the summer of 2004. The current league includes founding members Clarkson University, Hamilton College, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, the University of Rochester, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, St. Lawrence University, Skidmore College and Union College. Vassar College became a full member during the 2000-01 academic year while the Coast Guard Academy, Kings Point and WPI joined in 2004-05 as members in football only. Susquehanna University replaces Coast Guard beginning in 2007.

"Our conference has evolved dramatically over the past 10 years and we felt the timing was appropriate for this change," League President and St. Lawrence Athletic Director Margaret Strait said upon the announcement of the new moniker. "The new name and logo project a positive image for institutions that have worked together to provide a very meaningful educational experience for thousands of student-athletes.

"They will help us tell our success story and better reflect who we are as a league. We have stood for tradition and excellence and we're proud of what we have established."

Member institutions consistently send numerous teams to their respective NCAA Tournaments, as well as dozens of individual student-athletes to NCAA Championship events in cross country, swimming & diving, track & field and tennis.

Among the best in the nation in the classroom as well, Liberty League student-athletes earned many ESPN the Magazine National Academic All-America awards, including seven Rensselaer student-athletes - three in football - during the 2005-06 season..

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"Being a part of Greek Life and the football team have taught me a lot about myself. I have made friends that will last a lifetime. Rensselaer has shaped me into the person I wanted to be, and has set me up for the next stage of my life: the working world. Sustaining a challenging atmosphere in the classroom and on the field has enabled me to develop into a leader in both respects. These are skills that will last a lifetime." – Brad Williams '05

REFLECTING ON RPI...

"My time at Rensselaer has been made so special because it has required me to mature as a person, to commit myself to something greater than myself, and to dedicate myself to others ... Because I have created experiences that I will never forget, on the field and off! I have found ways to overcome challenges with the help of my teammates ... I was involved in the greatest game of football that RPI has ever played. I helped the winningest team in RPI history make it to the National Semi-Finals ... So special because people have grown to trust in me, and I have grown to trust in them. — Sean Doran '05
